

13th New England Conference on Multicultural Education (NECME)

Multicultural Education Awards — Call for Nominations 2008

During the conference, we will recognize and celebrate the work of educators in achieving education that is multicultural. The conference consortium invites nominations for the following categories :

- P-12 Multicultural Educator of the Year
- Higher Education Multicultural Faculty of the Year
- Multicultural Program or Institution of the Year
- Loel Greene Title IX/Gender Equity Achievement of the Year

For the P-12 Multicultural Educator and Higher Education Faculty of the Year, the selection committee seeks nominations of people who 1) have contributed, through specific actions, to improved education for all students; 2) demonstrate an active commitment to valuing diversity and addressing discrimination in education; and 3) promote valuing of diversity in an educational setting.

For the Multicultural Program or Institution of the Year, the selection committee seeks nominations of programs that 1) establish deeper understandings among people; 2) help people to respect and appreciate differences.

For the Title IX/Gender Equity Achievement of the Year, the selection committee seeks nominations of people who 1) have assisted school districts in taking positive steps to prevent sex discrimination based on gender and sexual orientation; 2) have developed or promoted a curriculum that is free of free of gender bias.
